James Mitchell of Cleveland avenue returned Sunday from Montreal, where he had his left eye removed at a hospital. His eye was injured by a piece of steel flying into it, and the specialist who examined it advised having it removed.

The fast pacing mare "Princess Helen," which was tried out on the local trotting track at the July Fourth races in an exhibition miles by Ed. Sunderlin, went a mile in 2:08 before the same driver at the Dover, N. H., track last week. "Princess Helen" was to have tried for the track record here, but was not pushed because of the slippery track.

There was another good program of pictures at the opera house last night. "A Trip Through Ceylon" is a beautiful film, including a railroad journey through that country, showing the natives working with elephants. "Poor Little Pig" and "The Window Cleaner" are both good, while "The Aeromant's First Appearance" is a roar from start to finish. Same program to-night.

J. A. McLeod of this city has been visiting his brother in the Lake Megantic region, Canada, and the local paper there tells of him in the following paragraph: "Mr. J. A. McLeod is spending a holiday with his brother, Mr. Councilor M. McLeod of Agnes. Mr. McLeod is from Barre, Vt., is 70 years of age, and is an ex-master farrier in the British cavalry. He is an old prize-winner in hand-made horsehoe competitions and has many prizes and certificates to his credit in this difficult calling."

"Jack" J. Mackenzie, now of Salida, Colorado, has favored us with a copy of "Rocky Mountain Resources," a monthly periodical devoted to the interests of Colorado, which contains an interesting write-up of his adopted city. There are granite quarries located eleven miles from the city having, as the sketch says, "an unlimited amount of the finest grade of granite found in the world." One view in the magazine which is familiar because of its type, is the manufacturing plant of the Salida Granite company, where "Jack" is employed. It is a "straight shed" equipped with a traveling derrick.

Why not try our delicious Scotch Buns?

They're baked fresh every day, and we sell them for 10c a dozen.

It's economy to buy them, for no housewife--even if she knows how--can furnish all the ingredients and bake a dozen buns for 10c.

You ask how we do it, then? Well, we'll tell you; we make them in large quantities--have to supply the demand--so that we can afford to sell them at a small price.

Let us send you a dozen for supper to-night.

No Grand Army man, or anybody else for that matter, should miss seeing "Two Brothers of the G. A. R." at the Bijou theatre to-day. The beautiful color effect of this picture beggars description. One has to see it to fully appreciate its beauty. There are some other good pictures and a song. Everything considered, the show is well worth the admission fee.

Seats were at a premium at the Theatre last night. This old stand seems to grow more popular as the warm weather advances, owing to its extreme coolness. Miss Hughes again made a big hit when she sang, "There Never Was a Girl Like You"; it certainly is a pleasure to hear Miss Hughes sing. She not only has a fine voice, but has that something about her which makes one want to hear her sing all the time.

A regular meeting of hose company number one was held at the central fire station last evening for the purpose of electing a delegate to attend the annual meeting of the Vermont state firemen's association at Middlebury July 15 and 16th. C. M. Camp was elected a delegate from the hose company and William Nelson delegate from the hook and ladder company. The meeting will include a tournament and several members of the firemen's club will attend, including Chief C. B. Gladding, O. C. Averill and Henry Hodgdon.

Leavitt's museum has opened a summer engagement at Dewey park. The various exhibitions are interesting and instructive. One of the features of the show is "Big Jake," said to be the big, black fellow and looks as if he might eat a person up pretty easily if he took the notion. It is said that he was captured in Bloomfield, Vermont, some eight years ago. The Arizona wolves are snappy appearing creatures and give the spectator to understand that they are not to be trifled with. The collection of Indian curiosities, some of them taken from the cave of the famous Chief Crow Dog in the Black Hills, are alone worth the prices of admission. New animals will be added to the exhibition through the summer, two baby alligators already being en route from the South.

On account of the dry weather and shortage of water, all hose use must be stopped for the present.

When all of our fancy colored Silks that were $1.00 and $1.25 are selling at 49c, it's good economy to buy for future uses.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

The Queen of the Forest Circle will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock. There will be installation of officers. A good attendance is expected. Refreshments will be served.

Among arrivals at the Hotel Otis last night were T. D. Simmons of Boston, F. W. Moore of Roxbury, G. F. McGoff of Boston, R. R. Metcalf and wife of Everett, Mass., O. W. Young of Auburn, Me., C. S. Sutton of Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. J. Blodgett of Randolph and Chas. Dantforth of Royalton.

The same old big crowd filled the Comique last night to see the new pictures. Among the pictures one that deserves special mention is "The foundling." This is a pretty story in picture laid in Holland, showing the trials of a pretty orphan child from an early age until she becomes a full-grown woman.

CABOT.

Denied That Fire Company Ignored Marshfield Call.

In the account of the fire at Lamerton's mills Saturday it was reported that the call for the fire engine at the village was ignored. That is a mistake. The engine was taken from the house and men gathered to assist in getting it rigged when a telephone from Peter-ville announced they need not come as it would be of no use. However the foreman did his duty and it is hoped the company will receive due appreciation of the way they started. "Honor to whom honor is due."

A. Lawrence of St. Johnsbury was a guest at H. H. Foster's recently.

George Dow was called to Walden Friday to attend the funeral of an aunt.
